

McNeely Lake

LOCATION AND FACILITIES

McNeely is located in Jefferson County approximately 15 miles south of Louisville off Cooper Chapel Road . This lake, owned by the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources was built in 1953 and opened to public fishing in 1955. The county park adjacent to the lake offers parking and picnicking facilities. Two graveled launching ramps are provided for boat owners.

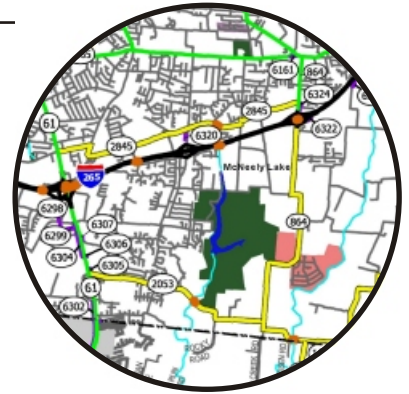

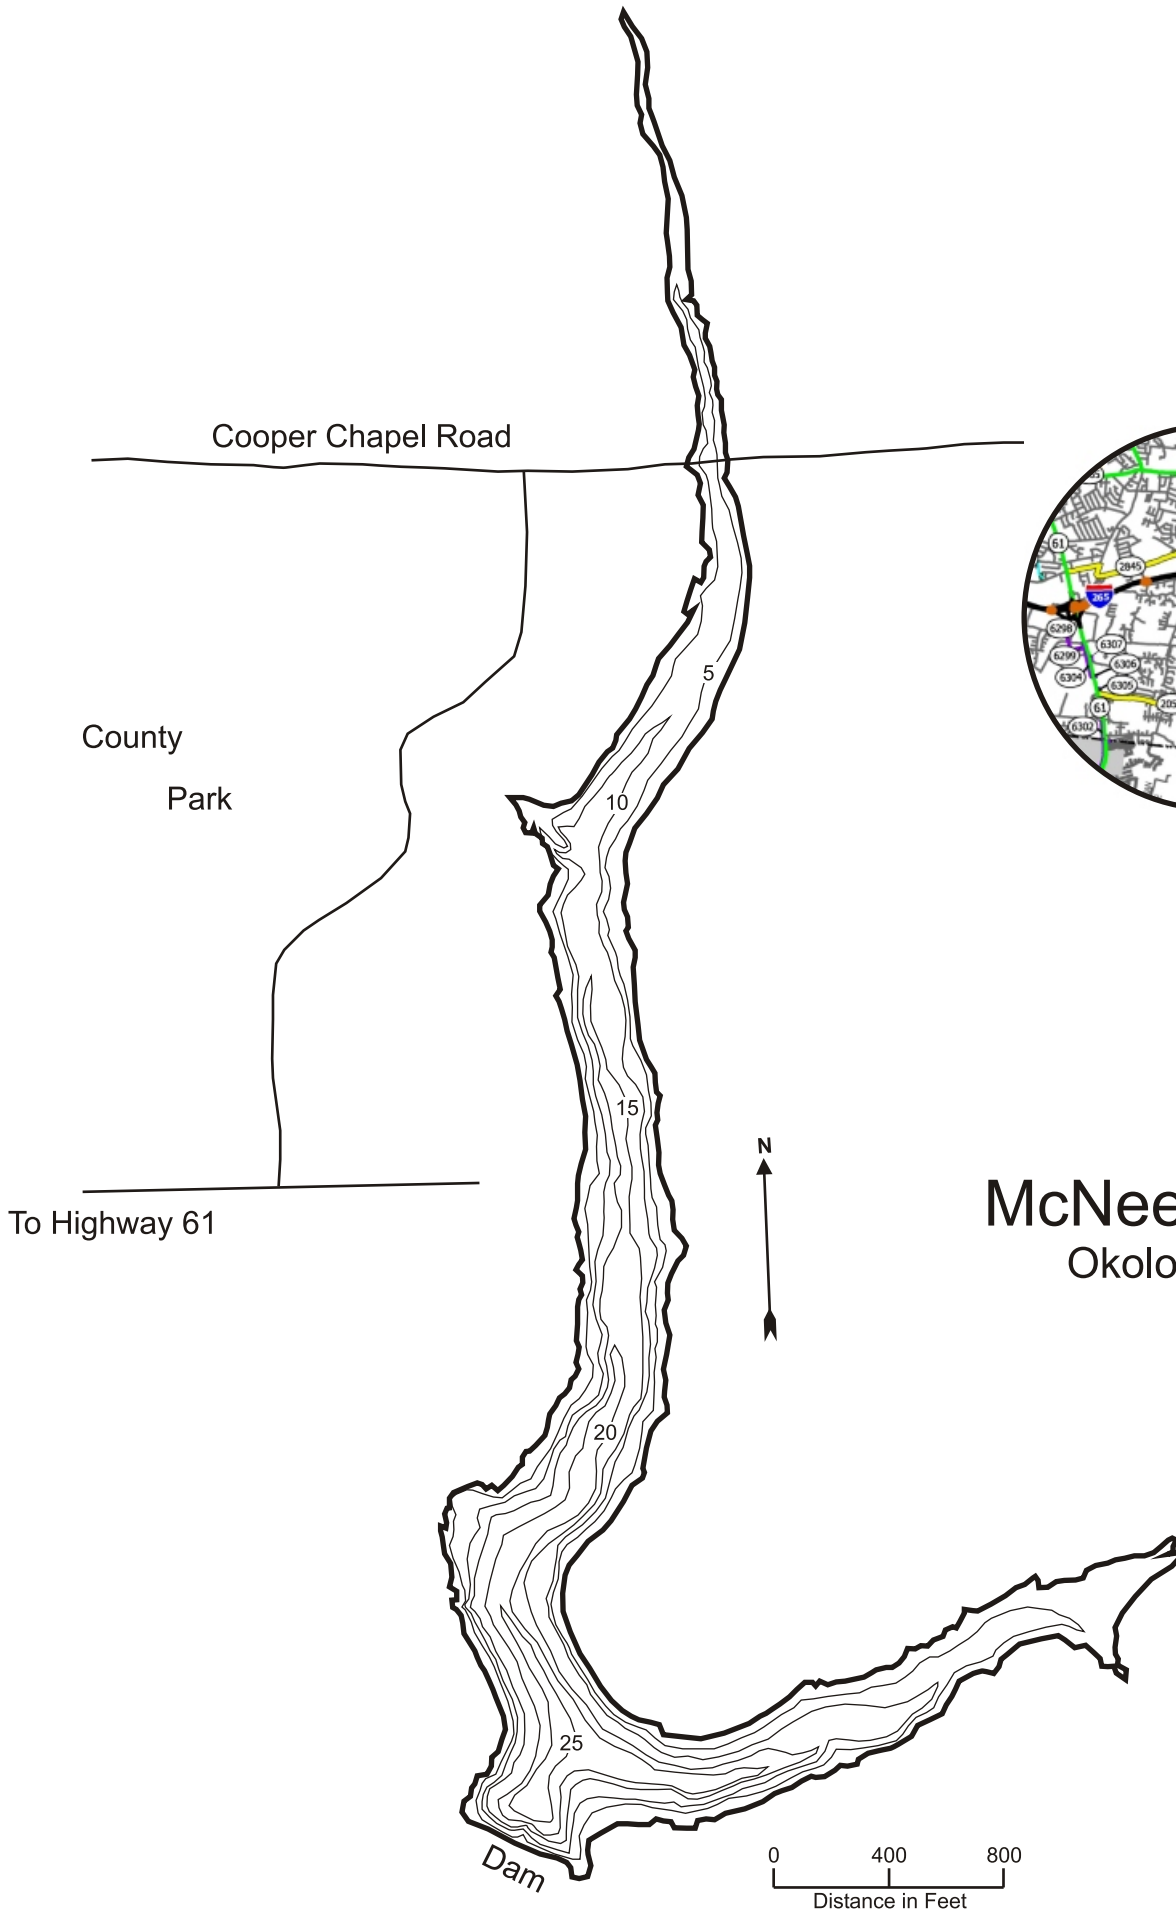

THE FISHERY

Species that may be taken are bluegill, largemouth bass, green sunfish, redear sunfish, longear sunfish, black crappie, yellow bullhead, and channel catfish. Live baits, such as redworms and minnows, produce the best catches.
